2. A. Discussion of literature
CCI has $6,500.00 worth of literature of which includes $500.00 of outdated books and pamphlets that we are not to be using anymore. Since we are no longer going to be a distributor of literature, we had to decide what to do with the remaining literature. There was a discussion on how we should dispose of it. It was decided to give some books away at the convention. The remainder of the books and pamphlets will be donated to rehab centers, libraries, prisons, senior centers etc.
